

PRIVACY NOTICE

WHO WE ARE

Key Education is a recruitment business which provides work-finding services to its work-seekers. Key Education must process personal data (including sensitive personal data) so that it can provide these services – in doing so, Key Education acts as a data controller.

You may give your personal details to Key Education directly, such as over the phone (including mobile and mobile apps), in an email or on a registration form. Key Education must have a legal basis for processing your personal data. For the purposes of providing you with work-finding services and information relating to roles relevant to you we will only use your personal data in accordance with the terms of the following statement.

COLLECTION AND USE OF PERSONAL DATA

Purpose of processing and legal basis

Key Education will collect your personal data (which may include sensitive personal data) and will process your personal data for the purposes of providing you with work-finding services. This includes for example, contacting you about job opportunities, assessing your suitability for those opportunities, updating our databases, putting you forward for job opportunities, arranging payments to you and developing and managing our services and relationship with you.

You will receive a booking confirmation via email from Key Education for every booking you agree to do – it is our legal obligation to do so and;

You will receive your payslip via the ePayMe portal and payroll is processed by UHY Hacker-Young in order for Key Education to fulfil a contractual obligation it has with you.

You will only receive marketing emails if Key Education has your consent to do so.

In some cases, we may be required to use your data for the purpose of investigating, reporting and detecting crime and also to comply with laws that apply to us. We may also use your information during the course of internal audits to demonstrate our compliance with certain industry standards.

The legal bases we rely upon to offer these services to you are:

- Your consent
- Where we have a legitimate interest
- To comply with a legal obligation that we have
- To fulfil a contractual obligation that we have with you

Legitimate interest

This is where Key Education has a legitimate reason to process your data provided it is reasonable and does not go against what you would reasonably expect. Where Key Education has relied on a legitimate interest to process your personal data its legitimate interests are as follows:

- Managing our database and keeping your records up to date

- Contacting you to seek your consent where we need it
- Providing work-finding services to you, including sending your information to our clients where you have demonstrated an interest in doing that particular type of work but not expressly consented to us passing on your CV
- Passing your information to debt collection agencies

Recipient/s of data

Key Education will/may process your personal data and sensitive personal data with the following recipients:

- Clients (Educational establishments)
- Former or prospective new employers that we obtain or provide references to
- UHY Hacker-Young, Evertime and ePayMe (for the purpose of payroll)
- Lucid Systems Ltd (IT services provider)
- NEST (for the purposes of auto enrolment for your pension)
- Disclosure and Barring Service
- National College for Teaching and Leadership (NCTL)
- Society for Education and Training (SET)
- Employment Agencies Standards Inspectorate (EASI)
- Local Authority Designated Officers (LADO)
- Police
- The Recruitment and Employment Confederation (our trade body)

Statutory/contractual requirement

Your personal data is required by law and a contractual requirement (our clients require this personal data), and a requirement necessary to enter into a contract. You are obliged to provide the personal data and if you do not the consequences of failure to provide the data are:

- Key Education will be unable to provide you with work-finding services.

OVERSEAS TRANSFERS

Key Education will not transfer the information you provide to us to countries outside the European Economic Area ('EEA') for the purposes of providing you with work-finding services. The EEA comprises the EU member states plus Norway, Iceland and Liechtenstein.

DATA RETENTION

Key Education will retain your personal data only for as long as is necessary for the purpose we collect it. Different laws may also require us to keep different data for different periods of time. Please contact us if you wish to see a copy of our Retention Policy.

The Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003, require work-seeker records to be kept for at least one year from (a) the date of their creation or (b) after the date on which Key Education last provide you with work-finding services.

Key Education must also keep your payroll records, holiday pay, sick pay and pensions auto-enrolment records for as long as is legally required by HMRC and associated national minimum wage, social security and tax legislation.

Where Key Education has obtained your consent to process your personal and sensitive personal data, it will do so in line with its retention policy. Upon expiry of that period Key Education will seek further consent from you. Where consent is not granted Key Education will cease to process your personal data and sensitive personal data.

YOUR RIGHTS

Please be aware that you have the following data protection rights:

- The right to be informed about the personal data Key Education processes on you;
- The right of access to the personal data Key Education processes on you;
- The right to rectification of your personal data;
- The right to erasure of your personal data in certain circumstances;
- The right to restrict processing of your personal data;
- The right to data portability in certain circumstances;
- The right to object to the processing of your personal data that was based on a public or legitimate interest;
